Andrea Constantine; Featured Speaker, April 14th CBW Luncheon

GREENWOOD VILLAGE, CO— February 1st, 2010 — Andrea Constantine, the ConsciousPreneur Connection Specialist will speak at the April 14th meeting of the DTC Colorado Business Women (CBW). The meeting will begin at 11:00 am and will be held at Maggiano's South, 7401 South Clinton Street, Englewood, CO, 80112.

Are you ready to add some soul to your business? Andrea Constantine, known as the ConsciousPreneur, will focus on what it means to provide soulful service and how you can serve your clients on a silver platter every time you work with them.

Andrea completed her Masters in Counseling and uses her background in psychology to help entrepreneurs determine what their really clients want (what they will pay for). Andrea brings a unique blend of spirituality, psychology, and practical marketing strategies into her practice. She's passionate about helping others succeed in their businesses and empowering them to make it on their own terms by following their intuition and inner guidance system. Authenticity, alignment, and belief make up Andrea's core personal beliefs around successfully running a business and thriving in it!

Andrea helps entrepreneurs and business owners see the value behind building a remarkable business and creating a dynamic experience that people will talk about. Exceptional service leads to raving fans, repeat clients, and endless referrals; this means more business for you.

Andrea shows how being of service to your audience is not just a fun and easy way to market your business, but it is the only way to seriously set yourself a part in a world where our clients have endless choices and options.

Get ready to be inspired, empowered, and motivated to truly design a dream business that gets attention. When you focus on the principals behind service, you will never have to sell what you do again. You can learn more about Andrea at www.andreaconstantine.com
